CORPORAL PUNISHMENT.

Several cases of excessive punishment of pupils in public schools which have lately occurred, have given rise to much excitement; and the comments of various newspapers have been of such an extreme character as, we believe, to do injustice to the teachers and injury to the cause of public education. That punishment will be excessive where unlimited authority is given to injudicious or passionate masters is a matter of course; and it cannot be denied that in a majority of instances corporal punishment is far more harm than good, and that it should be inflicted in the lowest possible degree.

But to say that in every case the infliction of such punishment is proof of the teacher's unfitness for the office, or inability to control himself, is, to say the least, jumping to a conclusion.

Many of the best and most successful teachers have felt themselves compelled to resort to this as a resource in effecting the purposes of their appointment to the office of teacher.

Discipline is as necessary a part of education as its lessons from books, and teachers are appointed to impart this as well as the other benefits of education. Moreover, none of the processes of education can be carried on in a satisfactory manner without the maintenance of order. Submission is a chief part of that discipline which is necessary to develop manly character, of which the habit of obedience to law is an essential feature.

There are in all public schools pupils who have known no law but that of force. The teacher, if qualified for his position, knows how to discriminate between the classes of his pupils, and will use his best efforts to enforce his rules by means within the limits of reason, gentleness and affection. But, in case of the failure of all such methods and the exhaustion of his skill to no purpose, what is he to do? The guardians of the school demand of him the enforcement of the rules they have made for him. If they find his room a scene of disorder, he is liable to censure and to dismissal in disgrace. His friends arise from children who are governed at home by force alone. His failure carries with it the ruin of his prospects in the profession he has chosen. We say, in such cases, a teacher may be absolutely shut up to the infliction of corporal punishment, and he does not thereby prove himself incapable nor lacking in educational.

To inflict any punishment, corporal or other, when under the influence of passion is a crime in a teacher or other person, and it is a fearful responsibility that he assumes whenever he performs such an act. The necessity then becomes apparent of selecting judicious persons as teachers, — persons cool but decided temperaments who will perform the whole duty assigned them mildly, if possible, but who will do it. With these conditions slight restrictions will need to be given; but to give him such a task under restrictions dictated by outside, inexperienced and ignorant persons is a course which will soon drive qualified teachers from the profession.

The Temperance Question.

We are glad to learn that the Licens Bill has been defeated in the Mass.-hassetts Legislature by the unexpected vote of 161 to 64. This bill contained so many objectionable features that some who preferred some sort of license to prohibition probably voted against it. This action leaves the present law in force with the State Com. authority to execute it, and it is to be presumed that friends will see during the present year that it is more efficiently enforced than heretofore.

Mayor Doyle, of Providence, has issued his proclamation giving notice to liquor dealers that the action of the Aldermen will be carried into effect and all places where liquors are sold will be closed.

THE PENN. TILLYAWA LIQUOR LAW. — The new liquor law in Pennsylvania is by far the most complete of the kind ever adopted in this State. It closes all bars and saloons after noon, and on Friday & Saturday; makes it the duty of the constables and police to arrest every person found in the public streets or highways intoxicated, whether drunk or not; entirely forbids the selling or giving in any way of ale or beer, wine or strong liquors, to minors; authorizes any child of one parent to forbid the sale of ale or beer to his father; and makes it the duty of all sheriffs, constables, and officers and members of the police, to compel the execution of all its provisions. The Philadelphia Anti-Saloon Society will be rigidly enforced in that city, and it is to be hoped its provisions will certainly be tested in the courts.

Last year a widow lady and her daughter, doing a little grocery business on one of our leading thoroughfares, remained a very handsome sum to the State Com. of the Assessors. The other day the daughter, a youth of fifteen, called at the office of the Assessor and said, "The present year." The reply was, "I am now married, perforce, born, but I have lost the money business had not paid me back, and I have had less $1,000. The lady goes to the house and sat down. The assessors and the clerks looked at her with interest. At last one of them said, "If it be necessary to collect?" "Yes," replied the assessor, "I don't understand you." "Well, she had to be cruelly audited."

Sayings like a lively and gay essay from a convert in Germany near Manchester, England, on the subject of religious ill treatment. They presented him with a midge at the Sheffield prison, after a walk of twenty five miles, and caused him to be laid low for the night. Likewise, in the next few nights had passed, and the police authorities having instructed him to turn them back, they were marched off as though the necessary arrangements could be made, under the care of a constable.

Religious Intelligence.

Rev. Mr. White of Trinity will officiate at Emmanuel Church tomorrow.

Thursday next being Ascension Day there will be divine service at Zion Church at 10 o'clock A. M.

Rev. W. H. Cudworth of Boston, having been invited to the Unitarian Church in Washington, has referred the request to the people.

Rev. Dr. Norton Seaver, of Rutland, Vt., has been invited to the pastorate of the Centre Congregational church at New Haven Ct., at a salary of $4,000.

The Rev. Edward A. Rand, of Amesbury, Mass., has accepted the call recently extended to him by the First Congregational church of South Boston, and will enter upon the work in his new field of labor at once.

GROCK CHURCH BOSTON. — The Grace Church Socy., who since the fire in their church two months since have been worshipping at the Bulfinch Street Church, (Mr. Alger) returned last Sunday week to their edifice in Temple Street, the vestry having been sufficiently repaired for their use. The total cost of repairs will not come much short of $20,000, which sum has been allowed by the underwriters.

On the 6th of March last King Kamchamia V. laid the cornerstone of a church for the Episcopal Mission in Honolulu. The ceremony appears to have been one of great interest. Among those present were the members of the government, the nobility, the representatives of Great Britain and of this country, and the royal troops. The new church is consecrated to the memory of the late King.

AUSTRIA COLLEGE. — The Christian Register says that one hundred and eighty-five students are now in attendance at Antioch College, and the number is steadily increasing; that everything in the condition of the college is encouraging; and that the most engaging promises of the New England friends have been more than made good. It has been determined to raise each of the new professional endowments to $20,000. The Channing professorship now costs $4,855 of that sum; the George Livermore professorship $2,700; and the Artemas Carter, $1,500. The Bowles professorship is fully endowed; and the Hall professorship has an endowment of $29,842. The expenditures to the general fund of the college have amounted to 10,765. The tuition fees this year will amount to $3,000; one-third more than last year. Next year two hundred students are expected.

PENNSYLVANIA STEWARDS' MEETING. — The meeting of the District Stewards of Providence District was held pursuant to the call of the Presiding Elder, in Trinity Church, Providence, on Wednesday May 8th; Rev. S. O. Brown D. D. President; W. B. Lawton, Secretary. The meeting was opened by singing and prayer, followed by a brief address by the president. It was voted, that the salary of the Presiding Elder be $1,600.

The following brethren were elected delegates to the next session of the Annual Conference: W. A. Wardwell, of Providence; alternate, John Kunkle, of Providence; Jas. Brownell, of Lewiston; alternate, J. G. Brock, of New Bedford; J. D. Eliot, of Fall River; alternate, from Smiths of Fall River; W. R. Pitman, of Newport; alternate, F. A. Warner, of Bristol; J. C. Scott, of Millville, W. L. Hutchins, of North Dighton.

At noon the members sat down to a dinner provided by the ladies of Trinity Church. After which mirth pertaining to the general interests of the district were discussed by several brethren; and resolutions were adopted of thanks to the Presiding Elder and accepting the invitation to hold the next meeting at the Queen Street Church of Providence.

New Publications.

SEASIDE IN THE DUCK'S NEST. is the title under which Lee & Shepard, Boston, have published in pamphlet form Rev. Dr. Todd's two articles on "Fashionable Murder." It is a good work that Dr. Todd has done and the general circulation of the pamphlet may be of service in arresting the crime which has become "fashionable."

The same publishers have issued "Why Not? a Book for Every Woman," which indecent modesty should not keep from the sight of those who need the benefit of just such instruction as both these little books contain. The cost is a mere trifle, and it can be procured by mail.

STUDENT AND SCHOLMATE. for June. This capital magazine has more about "Ragged Dick," and its usual complement of useful and entertaining articles. $1.50 per year. Joseph H. Allen, 203 Washington street, Boston.

EVENY SATURDAY, for June 1st, is at hand. Its contents are: Jacques Callot, A Railway Venture, Recent Lectures and Writings of Emerson, Silhouettes of States, by Henry Kingsley, Ch. XLIV., XLV., Priscilla's Lot, by Georgiana M. Craik, Chap. I., II.; Stone Edge, Ch. III., IV., The Risqué Column in the Newspaper, Foreign Notes, The Coquette's Glove.

GREAT SALES AT AUCTION. — Mr. B. G. Briggs' extensive Auction House, Nos. 8, 10, 12, 14, Dorrance street, Providence, is without doubt one of the most noted and most largely patronized places of business in the State. The auction business is carried on there on a really grand scale. Daily sales are held in the spacious hall on the lower floor every afternoon and evening, without regard to weather, and at these sales an immense variety of new, valuable and desirable goods are rapidly knocked down to bidders and at remarkably low rates. At present, a very large sale of crockery and glassware, imported from some of the very best foreign manufacturers, is going on there, and will continue for some days, as the whole is ordered to be sold as soon as possible for the most it will bring. The lot comprises some of the choicest and most beautiful ware ever offered in this country.

Every Saturday and Wednesday morning, at ten o'clock, Mr. Briggs holds, in his spacious hall on the second floor, a semi-weekly sale of new and fashionable furniture of all kinds, made with great care by some of the very best workmen in the country. Mattresses, carpetings, and various kinds of plain as well as ornamental furniture are offered at these semi-weekly sales, which are largely attended. The ladies are generally very numerous at both the daily and semi-weekly sales in the Dorrance Street Auction House, and seats are provided for them on a raised side of the hall. Any of our readers who may be going up to Providence should make it a point to visit Briggs' famous Auction House.

Sayings like a lively and gay essay from a convert in Germany near Manchester, England, on the subject of religious ill treatment. They presented him with a midge at the Sheffield prison, after a walk of twenty five miles, and caused him to be laid low for the night. Likewise, in the next few nights had passed, and the police authorities having instructed him to turn them back, they were marched off as though the necessary arrangements could be made, under the care of a constable.

Items.

The Taunton Gazette says that hay was sold in that city within a week, for $30 a ton.

Vermont papers complain of the depredations of bears, panthers, estomates and other wild animals in that State.

Scarcely a day passes that there is not an arrest for cruelty to animals in New York. President Berg is a perfect stander-up against this evil.

Planters in portions of Georgia have been compelled to dismiss their hands and turn over their stock for want of bread and bacon.

According to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue less than half a million out of the whole population of the United States, live income of more than $300 a year.

A young lady in Frederickburgh, Va., had her eyes seriously affected a few evenings since by watching too intently the vivid flashes of lightning.

Fifty-five miles of railroad have been built this season on the Kansas route. The earnings of the road for the first week of this month are reported at over thirty thousand dollars.

The Jews of Hartford have resolved not to insure in the Hartford Insurance company hereafter, because it had cautioned its agents against issuing policies to their brethren.

An Oxford saddler sold a saddle, but forgot who was the customer, so he told his clerk to charge it to all the bills sent out. He afterwards confessed that thirty-two had paid him for it.

The Philadelphia Union League offers prizes of three hundred, two hundred, and one hundred dollars, for the first, second and third best essays on "the legal organization of the people to select candidates for office."

The recent decision in the New Orleans courts that debts incurred for the purchase of slaves before the war are null involves nearly one hundred million dollars in Louisiana alone.

A correspondent of the Montgomery Mail calculates that the State of Alabama cannot be entitled for the railroads, granting even a solid negro vote, without the aid of thirty thousand whites.

Lewiston, Me., must be a highly moral place, for we learn from the Lewiston Journal that no person has been loosed in the lock-up there since April 4th, and the police Court room has been as silent and silent as midnight this many a day.

While the excavation of the front of Pike's New York opera house was being made, an old well, the rim of which reached almost to the top of some of the surrounding buildings, was discovered. It is supposed to be about a century old, and the depth of water now in it is about sixty feet.

A farmer in New York willed his daughter four thousand dollars on condition that she would marry a Catholic clergyman. As Catholic clergymen do not marry, the daughter endeavored to break the will. The defense is that the old man didn't mean she should have any of the property, and took this way of saying so.

For some time past Austria has been rapidly preparing herself for war, and in consequence of the introduction of machinery from the United States for the manufacture of firearms, the government is said to possess means for producing the whole of the war armament required without foreign assistance.

The Erie (Penn.) Dispatch of the 18th tells the following: — "A Balerian reports that yesterday he saw a large gull dive down into the bay to catch a small herring swimming near the surface of the water. At the same instant a carfish was coming up from the bottom, with his large mouth wide open, to catch a little fresh fish. The herring got out of the way just in time to be missed by the gull, who dove headlong down the carfish's throat. Carfish and gull went to the bottom very rapidly."

His Honor the Mayor and the City Council of Newport, presided by the City Sergeant.

Citizens and Strangers.

Route of Procession.

* After receiving the Governor the line will move down Pelham street to George, along George to Mill, up Mill, to Touro down Touro to John, down John to Spring, up Spring to Franklin, down Franklin to Thames, up Thames to Parade, up Parade to Court House.

Return in the afternoon by same route to Governor's quarters where the customary salute will be fired.

Hacks, Drays, Expresses, and all Teams, or other obstructions, will be kept out of the streets through which the procession will pass, under the penalty of imprisonment.

ROBERT SEATLE, Sheriff.

Court of Common Pleas.

May Term 1867. FRIDAY MORNING.

At the hour of going to press yesterday morning, the jury had just retired with the case State vs. John Green, for stealing. At half past one o'clock they returned into court with a verdict of guilty and Green was sentenced to 15 months in the State's Prison.

Immediately after that, the Judge proceeded to call over the docket and close it up by the following entries in the cases then open:

Wm. Smith vs. Wm. B. Fales—continued.

Richmond B. Negus vs. Solomon Stanislas—plaintiff submits to judgment for def't. for costs.

Wm. C. Langley vs. Wm. A. Hitchcock—continued.

Nathaniel Church, Overseer of the Poor of the town of Little Compton, vs. Joseph D. Allen—heard by the Court, continued nisi—judgment to be rendered in vacation.

John H. Crosby Jr. vs. Benj. F. Clarke, and Joseph Bindford vs. Benj. F. Clarke—discharged.

City of Newport vs. Wm. Beach Lawrence, City of Newport vs. John Maloy, and City of Newport vs. Benjamin J. Lawton—three suits brought under the dog-law and appealed from the Court of Justice, were all argued to the Court, and concluded nisi, judgment to be rendered in vacation.

Benjamin Bateman vs. Newport Protection Union Store—judgment for plaintiff for $192,16 and costs.

State vs. Henry Bell Job A. Peckham, } $500 Personal; Joseph L. Bailey,

State vs. Henry B. Horsewell—$100; James Horsewell, surety.

State vs. Edward Barker—$200; Samuel J. March surety.

The recognizances of State vs. Thomas Horgan—$50—John Oman surety, and State vs. Thomas Horgan—$500 John Oman surety were discharged.

This docket was thus closed, and the business of the session being completed, the Court adjourned to meet again according to law.

EXPANSIVE.—In giving some statistics from the State Census, the Providence Journal remarks that "the 1700 Providence included the whole country." No wonder expansion movements are occasionally made at this day to absorb everything within the State into its corporation limits. If election should be transferred to Providence, we do not see where it would add limits to its expansion. Impatient of its restriction between Pawtucket River and Sky Hill, it should adopt as its motto: "The whole boundless continent is ours."

RECEPTION OF THE GOVERNOR.—On the arrival of Governor Burnside at Sizer's Wharf on Monday, the customary Governor's salute will be given and he will be escorted to his headquarters at the Atlantic House through Thames and Mill Street. The companies forming the escort will be the same as are mentioned in the programme for Monday. The line will be formed on the Parade at four o'clock and then march to the wharf. After the escort duty is performed, there will be a dress parade.

INTERESTING MEETINGS are being held in a school house about two and a half miles out of town on the west road. There has been occasional preaching there by Rev. W. Livesey and prayer meetings are being held two or three times a week under the charge of Mr. William H. Cotton of this city. A large number of persons have presented themselves for prayers and there have been several conversions.

PERSONAL.—We are informed that Capt. Haggerty, U. S. N., now in command of the Iron Guards at New Orleans has rented the furnished Cottage of Mrs. Wallen Pitt, in Greenwich Place.

BLACK'S DAGUERREIAN GALLERY.—It will be open at Black's to be opened on Monday. Persons desiring pictures will govern them selves accordingly.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 21, 1867.

In the reported failure of Frazer, Trephellen & Co., of Liverpool, it was stated that the Government would not be loser and that the firm had given bonds with adequate security to pay the United States claim in case it should be legally established. Intelligence received to-day states that this is not so, and that the Government has no security whatever as the matter is now supposed to stand. Southern cotton factors are said to be large losers by this failure.

The Russian American treaty ratifications, it is stated, will be exchanged here in a few days, and the Government will endeavor to have the slurs and snipes hoisted in New Angel on the 4th of July, on which day another star must be added to the galaxy for Nebraska, the thirty-seventh State of the American Union.

The rumor mentioned in dispatches from this city that the subject of the removal of General Sheridan was discussed in Cabinet session last Tuesday is a fabrication out of whole cloth. Not a syllable on the subject was uttered on that occasion, or at any other Cabinet meeting.

A CASE OF CORRUPTION REVERSED BY CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.

Washington, May 24. In the case of the United States versus Joseph Brala, whose property was confiscated and sold under the decree of the United States District Court, sitting in Alexandria, Judge Underwood presiding, during the war, on the application of G. S. Miller, Esq., one of the counsel for Mr. Brala, Chief Justice Chase on Wednesday granted a writ of error on the following ground:

First.—That the District Court condemned and sold absolute estate of the petitioner in and to property, which judgment was beyond the power of the Court to pronounce.

Second.—That no consideration of property was for treason, of which the party could not be adjudged guilty, except by finding of a jury.

Third.—That no proceeding was in admiralty when they should have been upon the common law side of the Court, by information and not by bill.

NEW YORK UNION LEAGUE CLUB.

New York, May 24. At a special meeting of the Union League Club, held last evening at their rooms in 17th street, for the purpose of taking into consideration the recent action of Horatio Greeley, a member of the organization, to become bondsmen for Jeff. Davis, a resolution of censure was presented and rejected, but at last finally passed, condemning the bailing of Jeff. Davis, but not deeming it proper for the club to stigmatize a member for any such act. The meeting was violent and stormy.

From MEXICO—THE CITY OF MEXICO IN A FEARFUL CONDITION.

New York, May 24.—City of Mexico correspondence, dated May 6, says the bombardment was going on and the city was in a fearful condition. No water was to be obtained except from artesian wells, which rendered only a scanty supply. Forced levies of men and money were continually being made by Marquez, $10,000 a day being required from various business houses, nearly all of which were closed in consequence; $800 a day were demanded of one family. Provisions were scarce. The enemy do not care to prevent supplies from coming in, but they were turned away at the gates by the exorbitant duties demanded by the imperial officers. The Diplomatic corps suspended relations with the Imperial government on the 26th of April on account of alleged partiality toward Americans in the levying of prestamo.

Stredding, Jan. 20, 1866.

DEAR Sir:—I wish to inform you that I have been under the treatment of some of our best physicians for nearly two years, without receiving any benefit.

I had lost all confidence, and I languished in but a few of cure from any source. My disease was dryness, was spewed some fifty times, and of the different operations about 120 pounds of water was expelled.

I am happy to inform you that I have been completely restored to health by the use of Constitution

Water.

I make this statement hoping it may reach those persons who may be similarly afflicted.

Respectfully, MARGIE G. LEAVENWORTH.

IN DYSMENORRHEA, OR PAINFUL MENSTRU-

ATION, AND MENORRHAGIA, OR PROFUSE

FLOWING.

Both diseases arising from a faulty secretion of the menstrual fluid—in one case being too little and accompanied by severe pain, and the other too profuse secretion, will be speedily cured by the use of Constitution Water.

That disease known as FAILING OF THE WOMB, is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a series of headaches and aching pains in the back and sides, and at times accompanied by sharp, incisive or shooting pains through the parts, without any cause, barefooted, and which is cured by the use of Constitution Water.
